Weekly News:

Last week we celebrated the beginning of summer by making ice cream in a bag and suncatchers with flowers straight from the gardens. We got in the festive spirit celebrating St. Jean Baptiste day with documentaries, trivia and even a Québécois sing along. We took a trip to Paris, France and saw the many wonders this beautiful city has to offer. We finished off the week with a nail spa afternoon.

This coming week we will get out in the gardens to play a flower finding game and we will use some of them to create our flower stamp crafts. June 30th we will celebrate National Meteor Watch Day by viewing Cosmos: Sisters of the Sun documentary and making constellations. With Canada Day upon us we will enjoy some lawn games in the morning followed by some good music and a sweet treat in the afternoon. We will express our creative sides on Thursday with a poetry session. We will also be taking a trip to the National Canadian History Museum to view the Stories exhibit. Friday is filled with games; Higher or Lower and the more active Rhyming ball game.

Birthdays This Week:
